

Skit for 2010 NC District Convention

Written by, Nettie McQueen, Pilot Club of Fayetteville

Purpose: To encourage all NC Pilots to attend the 2010 NC District Convention

Use: Each club will promote District Convention by performing this skit at a club meeting

Need: 2 Pilots, Polly Pilot and Patty Pilot, and 2 phones

Polly calls Patty and she answers---

RINGGGGG

Patty: Hello

Polly: Hi Patty, this is Polly. Have you heard about this year's District Convention?

Patty: I heard it would be the last weekend in April- April 30 through May 2nd. Will it be at the Marriott in Greensboro again this year?

Polly: Yes, it will. It's such a nice place and they really take care of us. All the Pilots who stayed there seemed to really enjoy it.

Patty: Who is the speaker this year?

Polly: We are most fortunate to have Susan Hite as our keynote speaker. She's a nationally known speaker who travels the country working with large corporations. Her signature program is "Train Your Brain." She'll be speaking Saturday morning and early afternoon.

Patty: I believe there was an article about her in the Raleigh paper. Isn't she from Apex, NC?

Polly: Yes, she is. She graduated from UNC, has a radio show and has written 2 books.

Patty: I guess we'll have special workshops and officer training Saturday afternoon and the Installation banquet on Saturday night.

Polly: You're right but the BIG change comes Friday night. The Convention will officially start Friday night with the opening ceremony, the presentations of banners, and the memorial ceremony. Then dinner will be served. After dinner the fun games will begin.

Patty: That IS different but it sounds like fun. Does that mean there won't be anything on Sunday?

Polly: OH, NO!!!! Officer training will continue into Sunday and we'll have an inspirational message from the chaplain. We'll have the PIF report and Awards will be presented. We should finish about noon.

Patty: How much will registration be this year?

Polly: Full registration is $80.00—that covers 3 meals, Friday dinner, Saturday lunch and dinner. Since breakfast is included in the room rate all meals will be covered. Isn't that great? I'm super excited that we won't have to try to navigate those constantly changing roads around the hotel and crowds at the local restaurants on Friday night to have dinner. I heard the menu on Friday night will be excellent!

Patty: If 2 or 3 of us share a room that would really keep the cost down. We'll get to meet Pilots from all over the state, learn more about Pilot, and get new ideas for our club.

Polly: Don't forget our special guest. Susan Hite is absolutely wonderful and would definitely make the trip worthwhile.

Patty: Hey!! Wouldn't this be a great opportunity to have a special Pilot weekend? We can talk to some of our other club members and see if we can't get a car load, or maybe 2 car loads to go. That would really be fun!

Polly: It sure would. We'll follow our theme for this year:

BELIEVE we can get this done

ACHIEVE a way to do it and

CELEBRATE Pilot all weekend.

Patty: Great idea!!! I think I'll call Rachel right now and see if she is interested in going.

Polly: OK!!! I'll start calling members too!!! It's going to be a great Pilot weekend!!! Talk to you soon!
